MERCURIAL

Mr. J. C. Jones, of Fulton, Ark., says of S.S.S. "About ten years ago I contracted a severe case of blood poison. Leading physicians prescribed medicine after medicine, which I took without any relief. I also tried mercurial and potash remedies, with unsuccessful results, but which brought on an attack of mercurial rheumatism that made my life one of agony. After suffering four years I gave up all remedies and commenced using S. S. S. After taking several bottles, I was entirely cured and able to resume work. S.S.S. is the greatest medicine for blood poisoning to-day on the market."

JOKING THE FARMER.

He Acted as Though He Felt He Had Got Even with the Hotel Man.

He sat at the table of a country hotel and ate and ate. He had driven in from his farm that morning to sell a load of new potatoes to the landlord, which had been demanded by the summer boarders. There had been some haggling over the price, and the landlord had thrown in a hotel dinner for the farmer to clinch the bargain. The landlord wished he had paid all cost before that dinner was over. When the visitor could eat no more he leaned back in his chair, tilted it slightly and found time to regard the city folk about him, whose poor appetites were a source of wonder to him.

"These new potatoes of yours are excellent," said one of the party, anxious to draw him out in conversation.

"It's a 'tarnel shame to dig them now," answered he. "They're small yet and few in the hill. It's wasting good potatoes to eat them now. In a month they'd be full size and nothing wasted," and he sighed heavily, "but you city folks is mighty improvident."

"And then in the spring you'd take out bushels and bushels of them that had decayed in your cellar, and throw them away," answered a pert city girl who had had to contend with that sort of economy before at another farmer's table.

The farmer had no ready reply to this gibe, so he looked uneasily about for a toothpick.

"The landlord doesn't supply toothpicks any more," said the funny boarder, "since the guests took to carrying them away with them."

The farmer looked at the funny man patronizingly and replied: "The first newspaper with a patent inside that ever came into these parts, mister, had that joke in' it. I'm onto your city ways, gents, and I know that it ain't good style to pick your teeth at the table among ladies, but I am that worried with bad teeth that I have to drop my manners after every meal long enough to get the stray food out from between them every time."

"Why don't you get a dentist to fill them for you?" asked another.

"Some people can stand it," said he, "but I don't see how they do. It would be no use for me. I'd rather suffer the ache. From my colt days I never could abide the least little thing between my teeth."—New York Tribune.

Great Farms of the West.

Senator Casey, of North Dakota, has 5,000 acres under cultivation. The Dairymple farm, in Dakota, contains 30,000 acres. It is a genuine farm under perfect cultivation, and yields a heavy income. In the Red River valley lies the great Grandin farm. Here are found 15,000 acres under cultivation, and in the last ten years it has yielded a profit of $480,000.

Farms ranging from 1,000 to 6,000 acres are not uncommon in the west. They represent the modern feudal estate, without the feudalism of baronial times. A small army of helpers are engaged in working agricultural machines, many of them driven by steam. Senator Casey boasts that he can plant 250 acres of wheat per day with his drilling machines, and the Dairymples have a machine which thrashes from 1,200 to 2,000 bushels of wheat a day.

The fortunes of the Astors and Vanderbilts look immense today, but as the world's demand for wheat presses harder and harder upon the supply, and as the lands of those vast farming estates increase rapidly in value, who shall calculate the prospective fortunes of a family whose lands even today yield a profit of half a million in ten years?—Minneapolis Times.

Hawk and Turtle.

A gentleman who lives up the Ostanaula river told of a peculiar occurrence in his vicinity the other day. He was fishing in the river when he saw a great red tailed hawk fly down and light by the edge of the stream. It was a sand bar and the hawk waded out a few feet in the shallow water. He then observed the hawk engaged in a fearful struggle, as if held by something, and with great effort the bird rose and flew out in the field, carrying with it a big water turtle which it had attacked, but which instead of being caught had clutched one of the hawk's feet in its powerful mouth and held on. Out in the field the hawk tried in vain to get away from the turtle, but could not. When it became too fatigued to fly the man went out and killed both with a hickory club.—Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer-Sun.

An Ancient Town in Kansas.

The remains of an ancient town can be seen on the Colonel Brown place, a mile west of Atchison. The city was inhabited by a race much more intelligent than the Indian of the present time, as pieces of broken pottery containing figures can be picked up in many places on the old site. The pottery resembles that which was made by the Maya race of New Mexico. The site of the ancient city is on a level tract of land which is considerably higher than the other ground in the vicinity. Atchison may be on the site of the oldest city in the United States.—Atchison Globe.

WHY THE VOTER DIDN'T SHOW UP.

The Terrible Mistake Made by an Electioneer in the Wilds of Alabama.

I was doing some electioneering in the western part of Alabama when I rode up one day to what looked like a deserted cabin, as the windows were closed and the shanty door fastened and no one in sight. There was a field of tobacco growing on one side of the cabin and a thicket of scrub corn on the other, and in the middle of this stood a scarecrow, one of those homemade things composed of a stuffed figure in coat and trousers, crowned with an old straw hat. I was about to ride on one when a voice called:

"Hello; light, stranger, and gin us thay news."

I looked, but could see no one till my horse jumped to one side and I saw that the scarecrow had descended from its perch and was coming toward me.

"Hello!" I said; "are you the owner of this place?"

"Reckon I air. Did yer wanter chin about the craps in these yeah pawts?"

"No. I want to get your vote for our party. We represent the best principles of reform, and I have been told, Mr.— Mr.— 'Snaggs'—thank you—that you—were one of our best citizens."

This was slightly stretching the truth, as I had never heard of Mr. Snaggs before, but I wanted his vote.

"I ain't nevah voted yit, mister," leaning his sharp, smooth chin on the top rail of the straggly fence and looking off into futurity in a dreamy, vague sort of way.

"All the more reason you should vote now. I want you to come to town and to my hotel and let me explain to you the principles of right and freedom that our party advocates."

"It costs tin to go inter town, an I ain't got no store shoes an fixins," said Snaggs, looking down at his broken leg boots, through the holes of which no socks were visible.

"I'll fix you out for that at the hotel. Of course I expect to defray all expenses."

"Be you the gov'nor?"

"No. But he is my friend, and if you vote for him you won't have to pay your way into town. Here's a bill that you'll know what to do with on election day. It will get you first rate quarters at the hotel."

"I shoved a five dollar bill into the horny hand. It was received with a vacant grin.

"Got enny 'baccy, stranger?" asked Mr. Snaggs without any thanks for the money.

I had some and divided with him, and I left him in a radiant good humor. He was going back to his perch when I called for him.

"I didn't get your first name, Mr. Snaggs—Jim or John?"

"Tain't no odds—J. Snaggs is as good es enny."

"J. Snaggs, esquire," I said, with a polite bow.

The last I saw of Snaggs he was standing as immutable as the sphinx in the middle of his patch of corn.

He did not show up at the hotel, and as our party expected to get in by the skin of its teeth I was rather anxious and concluded to send a liveryman after him.

"Snaggs, Snaggs," said the liveryman musingly. "I only know one Snaggs in all this country; lives right over in the valley in a slab shanty and fixes up as a scarecrow when crops are in."

"That's the one," I said, "J. Snaggs, and he's got to come in and vote for us sure."

But the liveryman was bent nearly double with laughter.

"I reckon you're out on the deal, kurnel, ha! ha!" he shouted, "fur—fur—ha! ha!—Jen Snaggs air a woman!"—Detroit Free Press.

A Case of Being Charmed.

A New Yorker taking a Sunday stroll beyond the city limits was surprised at the conduct of twoscore of sparrows that fluttered in the air a foot or so above a bare rock in the midst of an empty pasture. Now and then a bird would light on the rock, but most of the time the grayish brown flock poised uneasily just over the spot. It looked at first as if the birds were catching insects, though none was visible. On the human intruder's nearer approach the birds still in the air took flight, and almost as many more sprang out of the grass immediately about the rock. At the same instant the head and rapidly moving tongue of a large blacksnake became visible just behind the rock, and he too made off. It was apparently a clear case of bird charming by the snake.—New York Sun.

Bears Routed by a Cow.

A comic scene took place a few days ago at Berne. A peasant from Ostermundingen was driving a cow into the capital, and had arrived at the Muristalden, when the animal bolted, and jumping the rails around the well known bear pit arrived at the bottom without injury. The proprietor thought that his cow was lost, but he was mistaken. She attacked the bears bravely, which utterly routed, retired into their den, into which she would have followed them had she not been prevented by the keeper of the animals, who let down the trapdoor. Then the cow went to the slaughter house and fulfilled her destiny.—Pall Mall Budget.

A Chicago Real Estate Wrinkle.

"See that fine flat there?" said a prominent builder to the clubman, pointing to an elegant stone front building on a handsome South side street. "Well, the man who put that up wasn't worth a dollar in the world. His plan was simple. He let the owner of the lot into his confidence, who let him have it on a ninety-nine year lease at double the rental he would have charged an honest man. Then an accommodating architect made plans for a $25,000 building, these figures being for the broker, who was to get 7 per cent. for negotiating a $12,500 loan from an eastern party. Of course the owner of the lot, the architect and the broker all knew it would be put up for $16,000. At this juncture he transfers his lease and ownership to a 'friend.' The work proceeds until some $8,000 is expended, and then there is a halt. The original schemer gets out of the way with about $3,000 for his trouble. The lender of the money investigates, and finding that $6,000 additional will complete the job finally concludes to take it off the hands of the 'friend,' who is so considerate as to demand nothing for so doing.

"Of course the money lender is the victim, because he thinks he is getting $25,000 for $18,500. He doesn't exactly understand it, but is pleased. The owner of the land is happy, because he gets double rent for the land; the architect is happy in that he is paid $300 besides his regular commission; the brokers get 7½ instead of the legitimate 2½ per cent., and the schemer and his friend have upward of $3,000. Sharp practice, eh? I know lots of houses built on wind here in Chicago."—Chicago Mail.

Development of Water Power.

Japan has recently given a striking example of what can be done in the development of water power with the aid of electricity. About seven miles from the city of Kioto is Lake Biwa, having an area of 500 miles at an elevation of 143 feet. From the lake to Kioto a navigable canal has been cut, involving two miles of tunnel and a long aqueduct. On reaching the city there is a decline of 118 feet. The difference in level is overcome by inclined laneways 2,100 feet in length, on which boats are raised and lowered from one canal to the other. These planeways are operated by electric motors, which are driven by turbines using the fall just mentioned. The wheels are supplied with water from the high level canal by three lines of 36-inch pipe 1,300 feet in length, delivering the water under a head of 100 feet.

Not only do these water wheels furnish power to run the electric generator for the planeway motors, but they also operate another dynamo whose current is distributed to motors which run rice mills, spinning mills, a watch factory, etc., and also drive an arc and incandescent lighting plant. The whole work cost about $1,500,000. While the enterprise was planned and executed by the eminent Japanese engineer Tenabe, the water wheels are American, the dynamos are American, and the motors and lamps are American.—New York Telegram.

To Teach You to Write Your Name.

Of the many queer occupations that I have heard of I think the queerest is that of "signature maker." What would you suppose it to be at first glance? A forger? Perhaps, but he is not in that line up to date. He simply forms your style as some other teachers form your spelling style. There are many business men who have no especially characteristic signature. They want one and they go to a man on Wall street, in New York, and he furnishes it.

He asks your occupation, what kind of business you expect to engage in or are already in and then tells you to write some notes, checks, letters and random sentences and sign them as you are accustomed to do. With this as a basis he proceeds to write several suggestions for your future guidance. He will give you an odd capital or a twist at the end and a conformation of letters which looks well and is hard to make, and then you copy it until you are proficient. It looks like an absurdity perhaps, but when you see the signatures of men who sign important papers and big checks you must admit that they do not usually have a "John Smith" look. It is upon this fact that this man operates. He gives you a signature to live up to.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Valuable Cents.

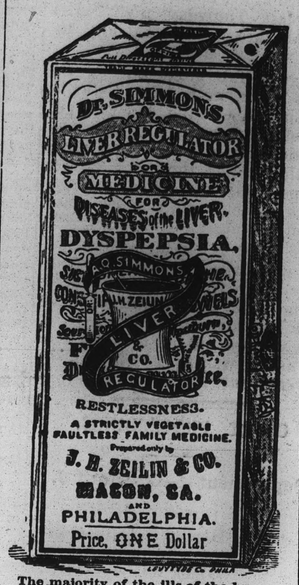

Prices you must understand to apply to good coins. Better or worse preservation would make a great difference in every case. On that basis a United States copper cent of 1793, with the clover leaf, is worth twenty-five dollars, or five times as much as the valuable cent of 1799. From that the premiums on cents run all the way down to five cents. The valuable dates, in order of worth, are 1793, 1799, 1804, 1795, 1796, 1809, 1811, 1808, 1797, 1813, 1800, 1801, 1805, 1806, 1798, 1807, 1823, 1857, 1810 and 1812.—Interview in Washington Star.

SONOMA INDEX - TRIBUNE.

SONOMA, SATURDAY, OCT. 22, 189-2.

THE TRIUMPH WAS ---- EDITOR

A Resolute Little Wo-man.

VOTE THEM DOWN.

The last Legislature referred a number of questions to the people of great importance to them. Some of these propositions are goood while others are bad and bear the earmarks of the Boodlers. The good propositions were no doubt interspersed with the bad to better facilitate the carrying out of a scheme to filch tax-payers.

The San Francisco Depot Act, which authorizes the issue of $600,000 bonds by the Harbor Commissioners to build a depot for railway corporations at the foot of Market street, San Francisco. This should be voted down, as the people of the entire state will be taxed to pay for an improvement which should be paid for by the Southern Pacific Railroad or the people of San Francisco. In other words if the railroad people or the people of San Francisco want this depot let them build it with their own money. It don't concern the people of the interior, who have to pay for everything they get in the metropolis.

The refunding of the State Debt Act, ought to be completely snowed under. If adopted it will put upon the people 2 per cent of school taxes direct, which are now paid in interest upon the school bonds. It will not economize by so much as a single dollar. It will, however, imperil the school system by opening an avenue of assault upon it by its enemies at every session of the legislature. Every open or secret enemy of the school system will be found voting "Aye" and every friend of the free schools will vote "No."

Constitutional amendment increasing legislative sessions to 100 days should also be defeated by the people.

In regard to the other amendments and questions to be voted on by the people they should be supported by voters, but beware of the three mentioned above.

THE San Francisco BULLETIN one of the most respectable and reliable Republican papers in the State, in its issue of October 24th, has this to say of Supervisor Cady, who is aspiring to Legislative honors in this district: "M. K. Cady, Republican candidate in the Seventeenth, is undoubtedly a railroad man. A well-known Southern Pacific attorney spent a lot of money to secure Cady's nomination. He has a bad record as Supervisor and any number of Republicans are working against him. He is Senator Ragsdale's right bower, and people know Ragsdale's record in the last Legislature. Having been nominated by railroad influence, I am satisfied Cady would fight the Traffic Association movement."

Dr. C. R. Holmes and Miss Betty Fleischmann were married at Cincinnati last night. The bride will be remembered as the young lady who a short time ago cancelled her engagement with a Hungarian nobleman because he refused to become an American citizen.

A petition addressed to the Governor, asking clemency for McNulty, who is under sentence of death in San Francisco for the murder of longshoreman Collins, is being circulated in Sacramento.

On the way to Paradise.

Let us hope that the people who habitually disregard their health will reach that desirable place, and avoid the locality which is less desirable as an eternal residence on account of the heat and surroundings generally. But while we tarry in this vale of tears, why should we voluntarily endure the tortures of dyspepsia, when a systematic use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will rid us of the atrocious malady which—unless physicians are very much at fault—tends to shorten the term of our existence. Heartburn, billiousness, constipation almost always accompany this complaint and are symptomatic of it. These are all extinguished by the Bitters, which also conquers completely malaria, rheumatism, nervousness and debility. Since the appearance of "la grippe" it has shown a singular mastery over this formidable complaint that has carried off so many of our brightest and best.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Light house.

Mr and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich, and are blessed with a daughter, four years old Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere handful of bones." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at Ed. Wegner's Drugstore.

RETAIN YOUR SENSES!

COULD YOU IF YOU WERE CONFINED IN AN ASYLUM?

Some Interesting Facts From a Prominent Scientific Man Who Has Had a Most Valuable Experience.

(Chicago Journal.)

We sometimes see in the papers a thrilling account of where a perfectly sane person has been confined in an asylum. Think of it, reader! How long would you retain your senses if you were confined with a number of lunatics, night and day, and yet think of the physicians in charge of these patients who are compelled, day by day and year by year, to live among them. What wonderful opportunities they have for studying characteristics and vagaries; what a wonderful chance for learning the miseries of life and how best to overcome them.

We are brought to these reflections by a conversation lately had with Dr. J. C. Spray, of 163 State Street, Chicago. For nearly ten years Doctor Spray was in charge of the Jefferson, now Dunning, Institute, at Dunning, Ill. This tremendous institution contained about twelve hundred patients in the Insane Department, and fifteen hundred in the infirmary. Among this large number of persons there were a vast number of physical ailments. Dr. Spray, speaking about it, said:

"I traced the great cause for most of the mental and indeed physical disorders very carefully, and while some authorities make an estimate that seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with some form of kidney disease, I do not think that the rate is so high, taking all ages into consideration. Before middle life it is less than seventy-five per cent. but after middle life it is, I should think, fully that percentage."

"This is something terrible, Doctor. Few people can certainly be aware that so large a percentage exists?"

The Doctor thought a moment and then said: "It is a fact not generally recognized that where a person has diseased kidneys and the organs fail to perform their functions of removing the waste and the impurities from the system, it soon produces melancholia. As a result our asylums are filled to overflowing, while if the people would strike at the root of the matter and see that their kidneys were in good order, there would be fewer patients in the asylums, I have noticed that a large portion of all paresis cases had kidney difficulties."

"What have you found, Doctor, to be the standard and most reliable remedy in such cases?"

Dr. Spray spoke with great confidence. He said: "Having so many cases to treat, I tried various remedies, and after a long and exhaustive trial, finally decided that Warner's Safe Cure was the best, most effective and most reliable remedy. I found it specially reliable in cases of incipient Bright's disease. It is certain to stop it, and even in the advanced conditions it allays the disease, and to my surprise at first, cured many cases. Before structural changes set in, it is certain to cure, if properly administered."

"Has your experience while at the asylum, Doctor, been continued in your general practice since leaving it?"

"Yes. I have occasion to use the Safe Cure almost daily. Whenever I find traces of albumen in the urine of a patient, I prescribe the Safe Cure, and in nearly every instance where I notice indications of nervous troubles, I analyze the urine, and almost invariably find that it is caused by some affection of the kidneys. I now have a patient to whom I am giving the Safe Cure, and find that it is having the desired effect. Some time ago a gentleman came to me, who had been examined for life insurance, and traces of albumen were found. I advised the use of the Safe Cure, and he passed the examination without difficulty after having used it."

"I understand, then, Doctor, that you attribute a large percentage of the ills of life to some disease of the kidneys, and that you have found the remedy of which you speak the most effective in such cases."

"Yes. I have no hesitation in saying that Warner's Safe Cure has my unqualified endorsement. I use it constantly, and would not do so unless I thought it possessed curative qualities."

The high standing, wide experience and great success of Dr. Spray make his words exceedingly impressive. Their sincerity cannot be questioned, and their truthfulness is absolute. Impressed with this fact, and realizing the importance of the same, I have transcribed his words in full and give them herewith.

Twing, real estate agent of this place.

Hon. E. W. Davis, Republican nominee for Congress, and Hon. A. G. Burnett will speak in Union Hall next Friday evening. The Sonoma Valley Band has been engaged for the occasion and after the meeting there will be a social hop. Both gentlemen are eloquent speakers and every Republican in the township ought to turn out. The Democrats are also expected to be present. This will be the last Republican meeting of the campaign in Sonoma.

Fourteen tramps entered Laux's saloon last Sunday evening and stood up the proprietor for drinks for the crowd. He was alone in his place of business at the time and wishing to avoid a disturbance thought it best to comply with their demands. Tramps are so numerous hereabouts that one is hardly safe after nightfall. Some means should be adopted by our officers to suppress the evil. Only a few days ago Capt. Boyes was stood up in broad daylight less than a mile from town and compelled to give his loose change to a gang of these gentry.

PROPOSED CHEMICAL WORKS.

The Proposition Favorable Reported upon by F. T. Duhring.

A meeting of citizens of Sonoma was held in the Directors rooms of the Sonoma Valley Bank last Saturday to learn the results of F. T. Duhring's investigations in regard to erecting a chrome factory in this place as proposed by E. K. Stevenot

Mr. Duhring was present and stated that he had made all the investigation possible in San Francisco concerning the proposed enterprise. He had called on Mr. Selby of the Selby Smelting and Lead Works and several other prominent business men of that city who know Mr. Stevenot personally. They all had done business with him when he was the manager of a borax and metallogical refinery in the metropolis from 1870 to 1879. These gentlemen informed Mr Duhring that they considered Mr. Stevenot a good manufacturing chemist and mining engineer and their business dealings with him were always entirely satisfactory.

In regard to the financial results to be expected from this new enterprise, Mr. Duhring said that he had been informed that parties in San Francisco had lately been experimenting in a small way on the manufacture of chrome by the old method and had found it could be made a paying business. Therefore, Mr. Steyenot, having a cheaper process than the old one to manufacture the chrome, he naturally came to the conclusion that the Sonoma enterprise would surely be a paying one. He felt satisfied that chemical works in Sonoma would prove to be a good investment, as according to the lowest estimate the works would pay 15 per cent on the capital invested. Works of this kind located in Sonoma would be an acquisition of great value to both town and valley. They would add to the material wealth of our people and make more business for everybody interested in this place and vicinity.

All present seemed to be favorably inclined toward the new project when Mr. Duhring had concluded, and a motion was made and seconded that a committee be appointed to circulate a subscription list for the purpose of raising the necessary capital to start the works. The following gentlemen were appointed to act: Jesse Burris, R. B. Thomas, Wm. Thomas, F. Clewe and E. K. Sevenot.

It was also resolved that no one man would be allowed to take more than 5000 shares in order to protect the small shareholders.

The meeting then adjourned until such a time when the subscription committee are prepared to make their report.

Death of a Pioneer Sonoma Lady.

Mrs. Sarah Wessel, for the past thirty years a resident of Sonoma, died very suddenly at the residence of J. M. Cheney, last Sunday evening, at the ripe old age of eighty years. The deceased lady sold her home on Napa street in this place about two years ago and returned to her old home in Ireland after an absence of fifty years. The old lady upon reaching her birthplace in the Emerald Isle found herself a stranger in a strange land. Father, mother, brothers and sisters and all the acquaintances of her girlish days had long been dead and no one knew the old lady when she made her appearance in the place of her nativity where she had reigned as the belle of the town fifty years before. Sad-hearted her mind reverted back to her California home, and after an absence of one year she returned to Sonoma to end the rest of her declining years. For the past eighteen months Mrs. Wessel has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cheney, who have done everything in their power to make life pleasant for the old lady. The remains of the deceased lady were laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery on Tuesday.

A. J. Atchison, the Republican nominee for Recorder, is making a very strong canvass. He is a resident of Petaluma where he is best known and where he will poll a very heavy vote, as he will receive the united support of his own party besides many Democrats in that city will vote for him. Mr. Atchison was elected Recorder of Yolo county on the Republican ticket a number of years ago by 476 majority and served two terms. As Yolo county is one of the strongholds of the Democracy the fact that the gentleman was given the alloted two terms against the most popular candidate on the Democratic ticket goes to prove what the people of Yolo thought of him. Since becoming a resident of this county several years ago he has won the respect and friendship of all with whom he has been thrown in contact with. If Mr. Atchison is elected he will make an honest and faithful Recorder.

The right man for Sheriff is S. I. Allen. *

Vote for Somers B. Fulton of Fulton, for County Clerk. He is both honest and capable. *

A FREE FIGHT.

In Which Five Tramps and a Number of Citizens Participate.

Last Saturday night five tramps invaded the saloon of Robert Quartaroli and one of their number, Walsh by name, took off his hat and passed it around among the men in the saloon, two or three in number, and attempted to make a forcible collection, in which he was assisted by his four companions. The proprietor objected to his patrons being held up in that manner and ordered the tramps out of the saloon. They refused to leave and said they would go out when they felt like it. Thereupon Quartaroli made an attempt to eject them, when he was set upon by the crowd. The other men in the saloon came to his rescue and a free fight ensued. Four of the tramps, seeing that they were getting worsted ran away and left Walsh, who had started the row, to fight it out alone. The result was that Walsh was badly used up. The following day he had Quartaroli arrested for assault. These facts were brought out on the trial of the case before Judge Cheney and a jury last Thursday afternoon and Quartaroli was promptly acquitted, as it appeared Walsh had got just what he deserved. Judge Breitenbach defended Quartaroli and attorney R. M. Swain of Santa Rosa represented the people.

THE BOLTON MEETING.

Republicans Turn Out in Force.

Hon. A. E. Bolton of Santa Rosa addressed the people of Sonoma at Union Hall last Saturday evening. The speaker was greeted by one of the largest audiences that has assembled at a political meeting in this place during the campaign. In discussing the tariff question Mr. Bolton made one of the most logical speeches that the people of this valley have listened to since the campaign opened. When he made a point against the Democrats he was heartily applauded by the Republicans present much to the disgust of the Democrats many of whom by the way did not swallow their medicine as well as the "Blacks" did when Gill Hall, Democratic nominee for Recorder, went for them with hammer and tongs and made the wool fly at the ratification meeting held in this place shortly after the nomination of Mr. Cleveland.

The Bolton meeting was characterized by the large number of Republican ladies present who heartily joined in applauding the speaker. During the course of Mr. Bolton's speech he was frequently interrupted by Dr. Sichel, a Democratic politician of San Francisco much to the disgust of the members of his own party in this place, who did not approve of his freshness and ill-timed interference with the meeting.

The meeting was called to order by D. D. Davisson, Republican county committeeman, who made a few brief remarks, after which he introdued Allen Bryant, candidate for county Treasurer to the audience. Mr. Bryant, after making a few remarks, was followed in turn by T. C. Putnam, nominee for Supervisor, Sam Allen candidate for Sheriff and W. F. Russell, nominee for District Attorney. All the gentlemen were favorably received.

Mr. Russell spoke thirty minutes and mapped out the policy he would pursue if elected to office. He stated among other things that as District Attorney he would consider it his duty to look out for the interests of the taxpayers as the legal advisor of the Board of Supervisors as well as to ferret out and to prosecute to the best of his ability all criminals and transgressors of the law. Mr. Russell stated as city attorney of Santa Rosa in 1888-9 he had saved the tax-payers of that municipality many thousands of dollars and he pledged himself to work for the people of Sonoma county without fear or favor should they honor him by electing him their District Attorney. At the conclusion of his remarks he was heartily applauded.

Mr. Bolton then took the platform and spoke for over an hour and during the course of his interesting argument he made some telling points from a Republican point of view and if he failed to make a few converts out of the numerous Democrats present it was no fault of his.

After the gentleman had concluded, the floor was cleared and the meeting transformed from a political to a social gathering, in which both Republicans and Democrats heartily entered into a sociai hop, the music being furnished by the Sonoma Valley Band.

When all other remedies for scrofula fail, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, if persistently used, effects a cure. Being a powerful alterative, it cleanses the blood of all impurities, destroys the germs of scrofula and imparts new life and vigor to every fibre of the body.

DEATH OF A PROMINENT PHYSICIAN.

Dr. L. B. Lawrence Passes Peacefully Away at His Home, "Terrace Hill."

Dr. L. B. Lawrence, for the past thirteen years a practicing physician in this place, died at his "Terrace Hill" home last Wednesday morning at 3 o'clock.

The doctor's death was not unexpected by his family and friends, as he had been in very poor health for some time. About two years ago, owing to ill health, he gave up a lucrative practice in Sonoma Valley and with his family went to Oregon in the hopes that a change of elimate would be beneficial to him. But the change did him no good and he then removed to Smith River, Del Norte county, in this State. A residence of one year in that place found him growing still weaker, and last September he returned to his old Sonoma home to die.

Dr. Lawrence was a cultured gentleman, an honest, upright man and a true friend, and as a physician he was eminently successful.

In 1886 Dr. Lawrence was elected a City Trustee of Sonoma by one of the largest votes ever given to a candidate in this municipality. He served in that capacity nearly four years, when he resigned owing to ill health. One of the improvements he inaugurated was the redeeming of the Plaza from a public dumping ground to a beautiful park of trees, which if the trust he laid down to his successors in office be carried out will eventually become one of the finest public parks in the State outside of San Francisco. Dr. Lawrence was essentially a man of the people and for the people, and all his public acts as a City Trustee were for the benefit of our property-owners regardless of self-interest.

As a private citizen he was universally respected. He was of very refined tastes and a lover of the beautiful and took great interest in painting and floriculture, and all his spare time from his professional duties was devoted to his studio and private residence grounds.

Dr. Lawrence was a devoted husband and father and leaves a wife, one son and a daughter and hundreds of friends to mourn his death.

The deceased was born in Lyons, Wayne county, New York, on October 7, 1840, and was consequently at the time of his death 52 years of age. The doctor was a member in good standing of Pueblo Lodge, No. 168, A. O. U. W., and had his life insured in that order for $2,000.

His funeral took place Thursday under the auspices of the Workmen, the remains being laid to rest in Mountain Cemetery on a site selected by the doctor just before he died

Sad Death.

Mrs. Maggie Fowler, the young wife of Wm. W. Fowler, died in this place on Friday evening of last week in childbirth. The funeral took place Sunday, and as the remains were laid to rest in Mountain Cemetery it was a sad spectacle indeed to see the three poor little tots and the sorrowing father taking a last farewell to the devoted wife and mother.

SONOMA INDEX - TRIBUNE.

SONOMA, SATURDAY, OCT. 29, 1892

WANTED TO BE ARRESTED.

Ready to Sacrifice Honor for Attentions from Softhearted Women.

The well dressed young fellow with a diamond scarfpin insisted upon seeing the chief personally. No ordinary detective would do him. His business was of the first importance and he persevered until he stood in the presence of the head of the force.

"Well, sir, what can we do for you?"

The chief was very busy and the young fellow's deliberation irritated him.

"You will favor me by being quick."

The youth looked mysterious, drew a chair softly to the desk and placed his lips close to the ear of the official.

"Not so loud," he hoarsely whispered.

An expression of mingled astonishment and disgust swept across the chief's face.

"What do you want?"

"I want to surrender myself."

The young fellow stared very hard. He seemed to think he had made a sensational announcement.

"Well?"

"I say I want to surrender myself."

The chief wiped his glasses and thought, and his stern look softened a trifle.

"What have you done?" he inquired, casually scrutinizing his visitor.

The fellow with the diamond scarfpin carelessly crossed his leg, directed his glance through the window and laughed in a knowing way.

"That's for you to find out," he loftily retorted.

"We've something else to do. Good day."

The young man's face fell noticeably.

"Do you mean to say that I ain't wanted for something?"

The chief shook his head.

"And you have no directions to arrest a man of my description?"

"No."

"Better look on your books and be sure. This is an important matter."

"I know without looking."

"And you don't want me?"

"No."

"And I can't surrender myself."

"Not at the present showing."

There was nothing lofty about his air now. In a very subdued, quiet way he pondered.

"Mister!"

An amused smile lighted up the chief's countenance.

"I guess you're onto me."

The chief nodded.

"You know I haven't done anything to be arrested for."

"Of course I know it."

He rose slowly, buttoned his coat and sighed.

"It was a great scheme if it had only worked."

The officer lost his patience.

"What do you mean?" he demanded. "I've a good mind to arrest you as a vag."

"No, no; not that, not that. Arrest me for burglary or murder, but not as a vag. I am trying to get popular with the young ladies of the flower mission. You would greatly assist me by locking me up for something terrible, but as a vag—no, no; that would spoil it all."

In terror the young man with the diamond scarfpin fled the place.—Detroit Tribune.

Bombay's Monster Dam.

The most gigantic piece of solid masonry that has been erected in modern time is in the Bombay presidency. The city of Bombay, which is listed among the largest on the globe, having a population of nearly a million, was in danger of being forced to undergo a water famine. The wise men called a meeting and decided to build a monster dam—one that would inclose the entire watershed of the valley, which drains into the sea south of the city. The plans and specifications selected called for a dam of solid masonry, pyramidal in general outlines, two miles long, 118 feet high, 103 feet in thickness at the base and thirty-one feet at the top.

In its finished condition it is reckoned as the acme of engineering skill. The top is provided with a beautiful driveway twenty-five feet wide, protected on each side with concrete guards, each three feet in thickness and five feet high. It incloses a lake of water eight square miles in area. —St. Louis Republic.

Eats Only Wheat and Grows Fat.

J. B. Runford, of Los Gatos, Cal., has originated a new system of living which he calls the Edenic system. He eats nothing but raw wheat, consuming about three-quarters of a pound a day. Bread, butter, sugar, meat, eggs and milk he regards as poisonous. He eats only when he feels hungry, and appears to thrive on his strange diet.

At forty, he says, he was an old man, whereas now, though sixty, he feels young. "I can get along," he adds, "on one or two cents a day and do a good day's work. Five cents worth of rolled oats has lasted me twenty-four hours while traveling. I could not possibly eat more than ten cents' worth of wheat a day; so you can see how economical my system is." Mr. Runford also has a theory about feeding horses, giving them only one good meal a day just before bedtime.—Los Gatos Gauchero.

Gunboats Used as Ferryboats.

Passengers by ferry between Brooklyn and New York are probably sometimes not aware that during the short voyage they are standing upon the deck of a former vessel of war. When the struggle of 1861-5 broke out the Union was almost without a navy and was compelled to improvise her fleets. The department seized fit craft, or those which might be made fit, wherever it could find them. Among those taken were a number of then familiar vessels on the South, Wall, Fulton and other ferries. The implication of the then is not altogether exact, because some of them are still in use here, having returned to duty with the company after the conclusion of peace.

These improvised gunboats did good service. Some of them perished gallantly in the conflict. Of course one of the ships of the new navy would make short work of all of them in a squadron, but in the circumstances they had to meet chiefly improvised rivals, and they did their duty well.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Wild Horses in British Columbia.

In an area about fifteen miles square below Trout creek, in British Columbia, is a band of at least 700 wild horses. They are not only eating off the stock ranges, but are becoming a more direct source of loss to stock owners, for they entice away good horses, especially the colts. The government has several times been petitioned either to exterminate the band or give the settlers permission to do it, but thus far no action has been taken. Though these wild horses are worthless little animals, the authorities are afraid that killing them will give offense to the Indians, who claim some of them, but who nevertheless shoot without hesitation when any of the horses interferes with their tame animals.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

"German Syrup"

Asthma,

"I have been a great sufferer from Asthma and severe Colds every Winter, and last Fall my friends as well as myself thought because of my feeble condition, and great distress from constant coughing, and inability to raise any of the accumulated matter from my lungs, that my time was close at hand. When nearly worn out for want of sleep and rest, a friend recommended me to try thy valuable medicine,

Gentle, Refreshing Sleep,

Boschee's German Syrup. I am confident it saved my life. Almost the first dose gave me great relief and a gentle refreshing sleep, such as I had not had for weeks. My cough began immediately to loosen and pass away, and I found myself rapidly gaining in health and weight. I am pleased to inform thee—unsolicited—that I am in excellent health and do certainly attribute it to thy Boschee's German Syrup. C. B. Stickney, Picton, Ontario." ⊕

ALAMOSA, COL., Jan., '89. XII

My wife was troubled with nervousness about one year before she took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, and at that time had very severe attacks of spasm, convulsion, and pains in different parts of the body; when in this state her lower jaws would act violently and set sometimes, bite her tongue, breathe heavily, then short, then seemed to stop entirely, get a wild look in her eyes and rolling around, then stop sometimes; it would take two men to hold her in bed, otherwise her body would cramp and be so for two hours. She took but two bottles of the Nerve Tonic, which cured her entirely of all these torments, which myself and wife gladly testify it truly had the desired effect D. S. McGILLIS.

Mrs. Ester Devilbiss, 354 S. Tenth street, San Jose, Cal., writes, October 1889: Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic has indeed done wonders in my part of the country. There has been bought in my neighborhood over $75 worth.

NAGLE IN COURT.

In the Justice's Court of Santa Rosa Township, Sonoma County, California.

J. W. RAGSDALE, Plaintiff, vs.
F. G. NAGLE, Defendant.

The plaintiff for cause of action against the defendant, alleges: That on the 16th day of November, 1888, said defendant, F. G. Nagle, received from G. W. Call the sum of one hundred (100) dollars, the property of the Sonoma County Abstract Bureau; that of said money said defendant, Nagle, returned to said Bureau the sum of $20 only, and retained, and ever since has retained, the balance of said $100 to wit, $80, for his own use, and that no part of said $80 has ever been paid; that said Bureau assigned said claim to plaintiff.

For a further and separate cause of action plaintiff alleges: That defendant is in debted to plaintiff in the sum of $80 for money had and received from G. W. Call, November 16th, 1888, for the use and benefit of the Sonoma County Abstract Bureau, which claim has been assigned to the plaintiff, and that no part of the same has ever been paid.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays for a judgment against defendant for the sum of $80 and costs.

Do Not Fancy

that because the summer is over, the season for recreation is past. From now on until the hot days return, will in many respects be the most delightful part of the year. The tempered atmosphere, pure, and stimulating, has the effect of a strong tonic, and recreation is lots more pleasureable because one can move without melting. Little need to hunt long for a place to go.

THE SIERRA NEVADA

abounds plentifully in interesting features that are to be seen at their best in autumn. From Mount Shasta to Tehachapi are many delightful places, and the difference in latitude causes very little difference in climatic conditions. It is as genial, north as south; the air as balmy and bracing, high or low, and semi-tropical luxuriance marks a wide path for hundreds of miles.

ORANGE GROVES

in Oroville and Auburn are as beautiful and interesting as in Riverside and San Gabriel, and all north and south are in the zenith of their glory in midwinter.

MOUNT SHASTA

is as majestic in November as in May. The Tavern of Castle Crags has grown more hospitable, if possible. The sublime scenery of has taken on a deeper and richer tint; the air fairly intoxicates; the resorts are so cheerful.

YOSEMITE VALLEY

will welcome visitors till the last of November, and treat them royally at all times.

The Geysers and Lake County are at their best now. Clear Lake is a charming scene—a rich setting in "America's Switzerland."

ALONG THE SEASIDE

there is no wintry chill. Del Monte is cheery outside and in, and its luxurious comforts never were so attractive. Santa Cruz still has its tide of merry-making visitors. Santa Barbara has become the Mecca of Eastern visitors, fleeing from rigorous winters.

Warm healing waters add health to the cheering comforts of Paso Robles and Byron. A dash in the surf at Santa Monica and Long Beach is as exhilarating in January as in July. The tropical beauties of Palm Valley are never seen to better advantage than now, and those afflicted with lung weaknesses find immediate, often permanent, relief there. The lines of the reach all these points, and for better information concerning them inquire of any of its agents.
